

BattleHack Developers Competition Terms and Conditions

(Applicable to the residents of the European Union, Israel and Russia)

1. Eligibility. The BattleHack competition (the "Competition") is open for registration to residents of the European Union, Israel, Russia and teams of maximum four registrants aged 18 years or over. Employees (and their families) of any PayPal company, its affiliates, subsidiary companies, any representatives or agents of those companies and anyone else who may be professionally involved with the Competition or the organisation of any of the Competition local events listed on the Competition website (the "Event(s)") are not eligible to enter. PayPal reserves the right to verify the eligibility of entrants. The Competition promotion begins at 17:00 GMT on the 16th of April 2013 and finishes in November 2013, exact date to be announced later on the Competition website ("Promotional Period").
2. PayPal will only accept a limited number of entrants per Event on a 'first come first served' basis. This number will be specified for each Event on the Competition website.
3. By entering the Competition you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions").
4. If you enter the Competition as a member of a team, you understand and agree that, in order for a team to be eligible to participate, all of the members of the team must meet the eligibility criteria contained herein and agree to these Terms and Conditions. By entering, you warrant that you have obtained the appropriate agreement and/or approval by your team members. In addition, you understand and agree that if the team is selected to receive prizes, the team is responsible for ensuring that the prizes will be appropriately distributed to each member of the team and each member of the team must agree upon the payment method for the final cash prize. The eligibility of an entrant is tied to the eligibility of the team. So if one member of a team does not comply with these Terms and Conditions or is disqualified, the team as a whole will be disqualified.
5. To enter the Competition to win a prize. No purchase is necessary to enter or win a prize. You must submit to the PayPal Competition representatives attending the Event you are registered for and during such Event: a great application ("Contribution") to be used with PayPal's API in relation to the theme defined by PayPal at each Event. You will have to present to the jury an original prototype of your Contribution during a time window defined at each Event. Only the Contributions coming from registered teams or entrants can be considered by the jury.
6. Intellectual Property Rights. You agree that, in providing your Contribution you are granting to PayPal, or any of its affiliated companies owned or controlled by eBay Inc., a Delaware corporation, an irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free, non-exclusive licence to use your name, picture, likeness, voice, biography and Contribution (or any part of them) in any way, form or manner that PayPal wants for advertising, promotional or publicity purposes. "Non-exclusive" means that you can continue to use your Contribution in any way, including allowing others to use it. PayPal cannot guarantee that your Contribution will be used by PayPal and reserves the right to edit or refuse to use your Contribution. PayPal may use your Contribution without attributing it to you personally and, to the extent permitted under applicable law, you waive your moral rights (under UK copyright law this is your right to be identified as the author of the Contribution) in respect of your Contribution when used by PayPal.

7. All Contributions shall remain the property of entrants. However by submitting a Contribution, you acknowledge that PayPal may obtain many entries under this Competition and that such entries may be similar or identical in theme, idea, format or other respects to others submitted under this Competition and/or other competitions or otherwise involving PayPal. You acknowledge and agree that PayPal does not have now, nor shall it have in the future, any duty or liability, direct or indirect, vicarious, contributory, or otherwise, with respect to the infringement or protection of any copyright in and to your Contribution.
8. You hereby represent and warrant that (i) the Contribution is your original work and was created by you, (ii) the Contribution has not won previous awards granted by PayPal; (iii) the Contribution does not violate or infringe the intellectual property, proprietary or other rights of any third party, (iv) you possess and control all rights necessary to submit the Contribution irrevocably and without restriction to PayPal, and (v) that publication of the Contribution via various media including web posting, will not infringe on the rights any third party rights. If PayPal has reason to believe your Contribution is not your own work, then PayPal may invalidate your entry into the Competition. You will indemnify and hold harmless PayPal from any claims in relation to your Contribution.
9. You may not submit more than one entry per local Event. You may not win more than one prize (in addition to the final Event cash prize). Therefore, if you are the winner of a local Event you may not submit another entry to another local Event and you will only be eligible to compete in the final Event. The prizes are not transferable.
10. The jury, a panel of judges internal and external to PayPal, will choose the winning Contributions for the Competition at the end of each Event from all the valid entries received by PayPal during the Promotional Period. You will be able to obtain full details about the judges on the Competition website and from the PayPal Competition representatives attending the Events.
11. PayPal reserves the right to appoint new/substitute judges for reasons outside its reasonable control (including, but not limited to, in the case of illness, unavoidable absence, or conflict of interest of any of the judges).
12. When choosing the winning Contributions, the jury will be looking for (i) the quality of the idea, (ii) its implementation, and (iii) execution as well as the overall user experience. Additional criteria may also apply and will be posted on the Competition website.
13. The jury's decision will be made at the end of each Event. The decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
14. The Competition prizes: winners will be awarded with prizes. You can obtain the list and full details of the prizes on the Competition website, at the Events and from the PayPal Competition representatives attending the Events. For each Event, the winners will be awarded hardware items and eligibility to compete in the final Event held in San Jose in November 2013 (date to be confirmed on the Competition website) for the final cash prize of 100,000 $ (one hundred thousand US dollars). This final Event will be subject to additional terms and conditions posted at a later stage on the Competition website. By entering this final Event you will agree to be bound by these additional terms and conditions.
15. Travel expenses to the finale Event: Where the winners' prizes at the local Events include international travel to the final Event, the winners attending the final Event must hold a valid passport and relevant Visas. When the prizes include travel to or through the United States, it is the winners' responsibility when travelling into or through (transiting included) the United States under the Visa Waiver Program to apply for an Electronic System for Travel Authorisation (ESTA) no later than 72 hours prior to departure. The winners must visit the US Department of Homeland Security website and fill in the required information. Any changes to travel dates or additional accommodation outside the travel period specified in the prizes details, made by the winner, which incur additional costs, are to be paid by the prizes winners. Incidental costs, such as but not limited to, passport and Visa costs, travel insurance, departure taxes, airport transfers and all other personal expenditures will be at the winners expenses unless specifically advised otherwise.

16. Winners of the Competition will be notified during the Event or by telephone or email to the telephone number or email address provided to PayPal by winners within 10 working days of each Event. The prizes (or as the case may be, the means by which the prizes may be claimed) will be sent to the winners within 30 working days of notification (except for the final cash prize).
17. Entrants shall be responsible for ensuring that the contact details associated with their entry are up to date and accurate so they can be contacted if they win. If PayPal or its authorised agents are not able to contact the winners by midnight GMT 14 days after the first attempted notification, alternative winners may be chosen by the judges and the original winners' entitlement will lapse.
18. PayPal may ask for proof from the winners to verify their identity. PayPal may also ask the winners to provide proof of their age and/or country of residence.
19. The list of prizes and winners' names and countries of residence will be available on the Competition website.
20. Taxes. The value of any prize to winners may be reported for tax purposes as required by applicable law. However, winners are solely responsible for the payment of any and all taxes and/or fees as well as all additional costs that may be incurred. PayPal shall not be liable for the payment of any tax or fees related to the prizes awarded to the winners. Winners shall indemnify and hold harmless PayPal from any claims by any tax authorities due to a failure to declare/pay applicable taxes on the prizes.
21. If PayPal has suspicions or knowledge that any entrant has been involved in any fraudulent or illegal activity PayPal reserves the right to disqualify that entrant and any related entrants.
22. PayPal may also disqualify any entrant that does not act in accordance with these Terms and Conditions or PayPal's rules and policies.
23. Entries, lists and or prizes may be withdrawn by PayPal from people using the Competition in a way in which PayPal deems inappropriate at its sole discretion.
24. If an entrant has a PayPal account, that entrant must not be in breach of PayPal's User Agreement at any time and their PayPal account must be in good standing at all times.
25. PayPal reserves the right to suspend, change or cancel the Competition at any time as it may determine in its sole discretion. This includes, without limitation, the ability to substitute a prize with another prize of equivalent or greater value if necessary, or to change the specification of the prize if circumstances require it, or to change the entry methods, or entry limit or to change the duration of the Promotional Period.
26. PayPal or the prize providers reserve the right to add additional terms and conditions for certain prizes awarded as a part of this Competition. For the final Event cash prize, additional applicable terms and conditions will be posted on the Competition website before the date of the final Event.

27. PayPal shall not be liable, in contract or tort (including negligence) or the breach of statutory duty or in any other way, for the loss or damage howsoever arising suffered by the entrant resulting directly or indirectly from entry to this Competition. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit PayPal's liability for death, personal injury or fraud.
28. PayPal does not accept, and is not responsible for, any lost or delayed entries. PayPal reminds entrants of the nature and limitations of the Internet and is not responsible for any problems or technical malfunctions of any communications network, online system or computer hardware, software or any other technology used for the purpose of the Competition that may affect entry to the Competition or receipt of prizes.
29.
